Good day America. I am running as an Independent for the President of the United States of America. I will do it alone. This is a leap of faith. My name is Mohammed Lodhi Hussain. And I will earn your vote Day-by-Day.

We have a choice to make. And I have made mine. The socialists have overrun the Democratic Party.

I know I will be outspent and more like the gameshow Survivor.

However, I believe American Inspirationalism and Excellency!

My story is available on my <https://sundays7pm.com>

I will not stand by and let my Democratic Party be overrun by anti-American policy proposals and activism.

This is the Land of the Brave and Bold.

The Land o Milk Duds and Honey Buns. A little laughter is good for the soul.

Too long failed institutions have funneled money to their bank accounts. We need to clean house and make accountability the Core Competency in Washington D.C.

I commend the current Administration for trying something new.

I have lived firsthand that experience. I was born rich and was forced to live in poverty. I know what it is like to live with disabilities and struggles.

I have been spending from 4 years old. The office of the Presidency.

Many of you will not be convinced of sincerity. Time will show and tell my worth.

I am red, white and blue. Through and Through.

This is my dream. A dream who is self-delayed is self-denied. Let us push ourselves to Win the Field.

My Generation X has been left behind. that we cannot achieve anything because of this feeling or emotion. With broken homes, avoiding being happily married and the offshoring of American jobs.

You may remember me from the previous Presidency of the United States of America last cycle.

I need no permission to run. Because it is a selfless duty.

This is a service centered profession. It is a calling. Not for Wealth, Notoriety, Fame, Power or other gains.

The Presidency is for the people. Not with shouting but with keen interest.

please and thank you. Questions are welcome the more the merrier for me.

I will be running to be the first Independent candidate for the highest office in the Land. Alone, but not lonely.

I hope I have the discernment to lead, faithfully.

I hope I can get your support.

Sincerely,

Mohammed Lodhi Hussain
