

Imma be me
that all I know to foresee
The little quarks and a quarts of ice cream
that replenish me.

Imma be me
Don't know any other way
Not going to play it any other way
Love me and Imma love thee.

Imma be me
you can be thee
ending masquerading as paupers, princes and nobility.
For love already matchmade us today.

Imma be me even when its uneasy
Imma be me when facades have no place.
Imma be me so you can judge accurately.
Imma be me because that all I know how to be.

Imma be me cause I heard everyone was taken.

You be you.
Because that is lovely and true.
A heart that desires to share fondue with you

In the winter, spring, summer and fall.
Imma be me. Because that is where my heart needs to be.

You be you.
for a love that is true.
or false.
We can play truth or dare with shy and bashful downward stairs.

You be you.
and I will be me.
Because today is the day
for love and butterflies in our stomachs to fly away.

All the best to you as you leave.
You were you.
And I was me.

And we grew apart.
That is when queen takes king.
yet knight takes queen with charm and wit.
So, that king is alone for one more day and night.

You were you.
I am ok you moved on.
Loves dilly dallying away
I wish you the best
Because you brought out the best in me without a word.
Courage and ease were your badges and medals pinned unexpectedly on this fools harmony.

Best wishes and goodbye.
To someone that saved a fool like me.
Who learned from you
how Imma be me.
Thank you.
